

VANDERBILT
BLAIR SCHOOL OF MUSIC

The Vanderbilt Composers Forum

presents

Living Sounds

Wednesday, October 13, 2021

Steve and Judy Turner Recital Hall

8:00 PM

Elliptical Trajectory

Carlos Meyers

(b. 2000)

Alison Wang, Somerset Peede, and Esther Zhu, viola

Where Are We?

Charles Tucker

(b. 2001)

Holly Venkitaswaran and Abrielle Scott, flute

He said, "If in his image I was made"

Beck Rusley

(b. 2001)

Poem by Trumbull Stickney

(Printed on opposite side)

Rachael Bell, voice; Jason Brauer, piano

Piano Sonata

Jason Brauer

I. Allegro

(b. 2001)

II. Misterioso

III. Humoresque

Jason Brauer, piano

He said: If in his image I was made
by Trumbull Stickney

He said: "If in his image I was made,
I am his equal and across the land
We two should make our journey hand in hand
Like brothers dignified and unafraid."
And God that day was walking in the shade.
To whom he said: "The world is idly planned,
We cross each other, let us understand
Thou who thou art, I who I am," he said.
Darkness came down. And all that night was heard
Tremendous clamour and the broken roar
Of things in turmoil driven down before.
Then silence. Morning broke, and sang a bird.
He lay upon the earth, his bosom stirred;
But God was seen no longer any more.