Changes in accommodations requested by the participant 45 or fewer days prior to departure may result in additional charges.
- Meals. Breakfast daily and lunches and dinners as indicated in the itinerary. Luncheons and dinners include a basic beverage. Meals on June 25-28 are as per the Queen City Children’s Festival.

If you have dietary restrictions or food allergies, be sure to carry your medications with you at all times. Also, discuss your special needs with your tour personnel and ask the wait staff about the foods you are served.

Mobility Concerns. Sighting on Witte tours almost always includes walking. Visits to historical places often mean climbing stairs and walking on uneven surfaces or cobblestones. The Americans with Disabilities Act (“ADA”) is only applicable within the U.S., and facilities for disabled individuals are limited outside its borders. A qualified and physically able companion must accompany travelers who need such assistance. Motorized scooters and wheelchairs are unsuitable for many trips. Transportation services, including many tour motor coaches, are not equipped with wheelchair ramps. Wheelchair accessibility is not always available. Witte tour personnel are not able to provide attendant services.

Consult your physician if you have any concerns about your ability to participate.

Time away from the tour. Advise Witte in writing at least 45 days before departure if you plan to spend some time away from the tour. Wherever possible, you will be credited for missed hotel nights.
Final tour documents—including itinerary, hotel list, passenger list, and luggage tags—are sent about 10 days prior to departure.

Limitations of Responsibility and Disclosure. The trip outlined herein has been contracted with various suppliers. Witte acts solely as a booking agent for supplier hotels, airlines, charter buses, company tours, cruises, trains, boat purveyors or owners, and other independent contractors providing accommodations, transportation, and/or other services, and is not the source or provider of the travel services.
