Goals

For students to improve their playing level and technique. This will include an emphasis on:

- tone (playing with a richer, fuller sound)
- better pitch (by listening and “thinking” finger patterns, and
- playing more musically – with more dynamics and learning how to shape phrases

Course Content

Rehearsals will consistently address the following concepts:

- improve ensemble playing
- develop a richer, deeper sound
- expand scales –
 - YSO 1 focus on shifting and playing in third position
 - YSO 2 start 3 octave scales (G and A Major)
 - YSO 3 most of scales (listed below) will be 3 octaves

For all sections of YSO:

sharp scales (G, D, and A Major) and C Major for fall semester flat scales (F, B \flat , and E \flat) for spring semester

- improve pitch when playing in third position
- learn to play more musically
- improve sight reading

Attendance requirements and make-up policies

The following attendance and make-up policies will apply to all students:

- If a student must miss a rehearsal, the instructor is to be notified as soon as possible.
- If the rehearsal is cancelled, each family will be contacted by the director (Celeste Tuten) or the office (in case of an emergency).
- Parents are encouraged to attend rehearsals.

Performance and Practice Expectations and Requirements

The following will expand upon performance opportunities:

- The five (5) string orchestras will combine and perform at least two (2) concerts each semester.
- Daily practice will be encouraged.

The Rehearsal/Concert Schedule will be sent out to parents as soon as our winter and spring concert dates are set in Ingram Hall.

Policy Statement

The following policies will apply:

- The parent or guardian of a minor child (under 18 years of age) is responsible for transportation and seeing their student to and from the ensemble rehearsal room (2190).
- Ensembles which include children younger than 10 years of age (Youth Strings, Reading Orchestra, and the Beginning Reading Orchestra) should have specific drop-off and pick-up procedures clearly specified.
- Children younger than 10 years of age should be accompanied by a parent/guardian at all times.
- For the safety of the student, if a student is absent or late for the rehearsal, the parent/guardian will be contacted after the rehearsal.
- Parents should notify the instructor if the student has any medical condition, allergies, situations, required learning approaches or restrictions that would limit or affect the child's ability to fully participate in the ensemble and concerts.

The Vanderbilt University Statement on the Protection of Minors

The care and safety of our students is of primary importance to all at Vanderbilt. All Vanderbilt University personnel adhere to Tennessee state law on mandatory child abuse reporting to either the appropriate law enforcement agency or the state hotline operated by the Department of Children's Service. In addition to external reporting, Vanderbilt has a mandatory internal child abuse reporting procedure. If you have reason to believe abuse or inappropriate behavior has occurred concerning a minor participating in a Vanderbilt University program, please consult the program director, or Risk Management (615-322-5155), or report via the Vanderbilt hotline at 844-814-5935. The Tennessee Child Abuse reporting hotline number is 877-237-0004.
