BCC CHAPERONE TOUR GUIDELINES

The first duty of the chaperone is to help the members of Blair Children's Chorus have a safe and enjoyable experience. All of the rules are all based on that basic principle. Chaperones are asked and expected to remind students of the rules and help them comply with them.

Tour Behavior

- Adult chaperones are to guide students by word and example.
- A chaperone may prevent, halt, or correct misbehavior, but may not impose a sanction for misbehavior.
- It is rare that a sanction needs to be imposed, but if it becomes necessary it can be imposed only by a leader employed by the Blair School of Music: Alison Warford, Program Administrator, Mary Biddlecombe, Artistic Director, Tucker Biddlecombe, Director of Choral Activities.
- Mrs. Biddlecombe is the final authority in any situation or dispute.

Medical Release/Illness

- All adult chaperones are required to complete a Blair Adult Release form before traveling with the group, as well as all forms in the Chaperone packet.
- All adult chaperones are required to complete the Background Check by Vanderbilt Risk Management, and must complete the Vanderbilt online training module on the Protection of Minors. – email confirmation to Mrs. Warford.
- Medical release waivers for each student and chaperone shall be carried for all camps and tours. In case of an accident or illness, the medical release waivers, medical forms and copies of insurance card need to be presented to the treating facility.
- Chaperones are required to report any illness to Mrs. Warford, Mrs. Biddlecombe or Dr. Biddlecombe immediately.

Housing

- Overnight chaperones should not retire for the evening until all students are in their rooms, settled and secure at the required lights out time.
- Adult chaperones may not be housed in the same room with a child chorus member under age 18, except their own child.
- If there is a problem in the night (homesickness or illness for example) and one of the children you are chaperoning contacts you, do your best to comfort the child. Do not take the child to your room or stay in the room with the child for longer than a few minutes. If there is a problem that cannot quickly be taken care of, the chaperone must contact Mrs. Warford, Mrs. Biddlecombe or Dr. Biddlecombe.

Communication

- Each adult chaperone should possess and carry a charged cell phone.
- The cell phone numbers of all adults on tour or camp will be given out to the parents at home.
CHORUS MEMBER GUIDELINES (for Chaperone reference)

The most important purpose of our tour is to further our musical skills. This tour will also give you the opportunity to make new friends and to bond with your fellow chorus members. Tours give us the opportunity to travel, see new places, meet new people and their cultures and learn about other musical traditions. Concert tours are an important part of our program where we can share our work as well as continue to learn from others.

We care about the health and safety of our chorus members. On our tours, we are particularly concerned about the health of voices. Some of the guidelines below are to help all our students protect their voices and have a happy and healthy tour experience.

BUS RULES

1. Remain seated and facing forward when the bus is moving.
2. When an adult is giving instructions (usually over the bus intercom) remove all devices from your ears, do not talk. LISTEN!
3. No shouting on the bus. No singing on the bus unless Mrs. Biddlecombe requests it.

TOUR RULES

1. Be respectful of all tour staff, BCC leaders, chaperones, and fellow chorus members.
2. Go to bed on time.
3. Be on time for all events.
4. Stay in the room after the stated time.
5. Clean up after yourselves.
6. Turn off cell phones in rehearsal.
7. Leave your hand-held gaming devices at home.
8. NO GUM EVER!
9. Do not touch the musical instruments.

CONSEQUENCES

1\textsuperscript{st} offence: verbal warning
2\textsuperscript{nd} offence: loss of recreation privileges
3\textsuperscript{rd} offence: meeting with Mrs. Biddlecombe; parent contacted
4\textsuperscript{th} offence: student will be sent home at parent’s expense.

These guidelines apply to all chorus members. Chaperones are expected to follow them and help the chorus members follow them as well.

As a chaperone for the Blair Children’s Chorus, I have read, understand, and agree to comply with the chaperone guidelines, and camp rules.
